MURDERER CAUGHT.—The Mitchell Advocate says:—Most of our readers will have heard of a most brutal crime committed about two months ago in Nashville, Virginia, where a wealthy planter and his whole family were murdered, and afterwards hanged. Three arrests were made soon after the crime, and the parties found guilty of being accessory in the diabolical affair. The other two were sentenced to hang, and were now still at large. A reward of $8,000 in search of the feed. He tramped into Canada, and after about seven days' chase arrested him in the Gore district, on Friday evening last. The detective was under disguise at the time, and he not presented a revolver at the murderer's head, he would have experienced some difficulty in putting on the handcuffs. Being done his person was searched, and a bowie-knife was found secreted by him in the lining of his vest, and a second man in one of his boots. The party, accompanied by a detective, passed through the jail on Saturday last, from whom they took these particulars. The murdered man, a dark complexioned man, of medium height, and is about twenty-five years of age. He wore a swallow-tailed black coat and rowdy hat, and his very countenance was the end of the deceased.

PARLIAMENTARY.
THE NORTH WEST TERRITORY.
Quebec, Sept. 16.
The House met at 10 o'clock.
The order of the day being called.
Mr. Brown, in accordance with the arrangement made yesterday, proceeded to explain the policy of the Government respecting the North West Territory, his speech occupying about one hour.
He began by saying that what he had to say was a matter which deeply concerned the highest interests of the country, and he was happy to believe it was one which would be approached without any party that could be said to have an axe to grind.
